

Brent Burgoyne \ STRATEGY FACILITATOR*

Ready for something a little different?

Our process finds a way to integrate the best thinking in your team to make your aspirations real.

First thing to do: Agree on the essentials.

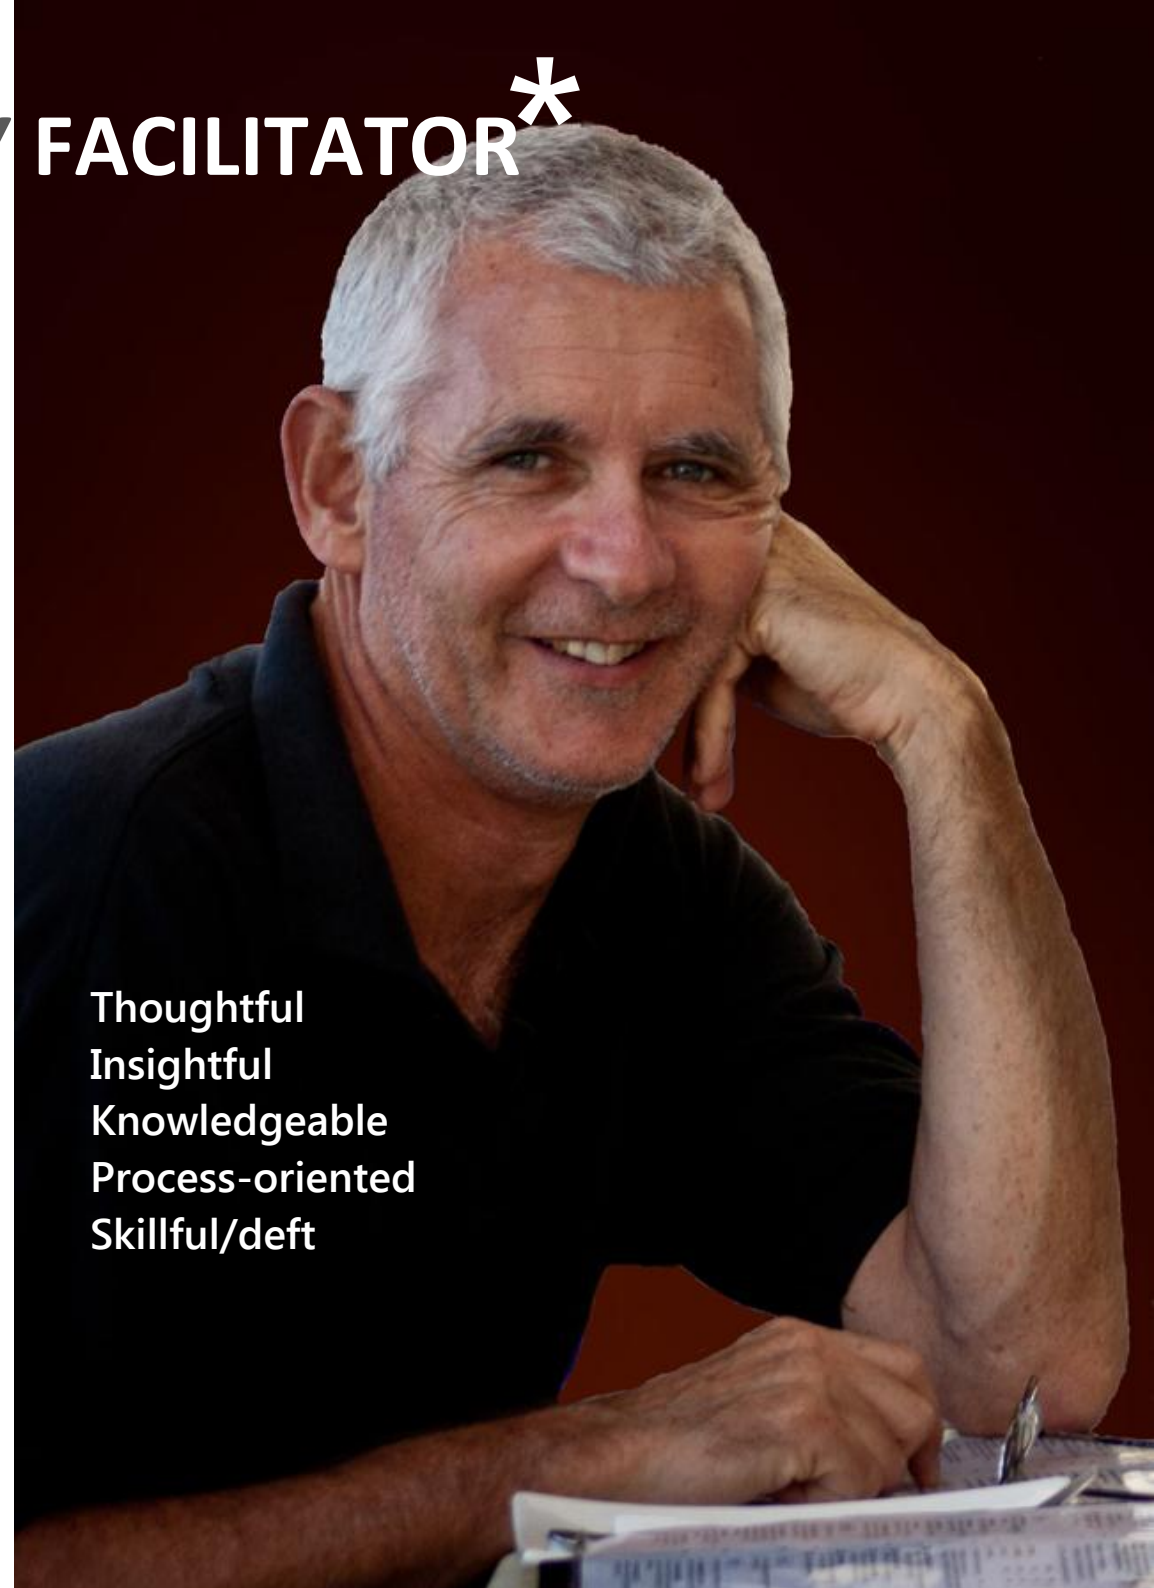

We bring the following essentials to our process:

- ◆ Strategy is a conversation process, not a once-off event.
- ◆ Strategy must be aligned with the realities of human behavior in your organisation.
- ◆ Strategy must result in project-oriented action plans. (WHO will do HOW MUCH of WHAT by WHEN?)

"Brent facilitated an excellent high level strategic session on a regional renewable energy strategy, and was masterful in teasing out the essence of what was required, and ensuring that the diverse participants reached agreement as to the key elements within the overall strategy. Despite not having a deep background on the subject, Brent played an excellent role in facilitating a challenging subject, and can be strongly recommended for any such engagements."
